"American colonial ideas of self-government came as much from the colonists' observations of tribal governments as from their Protestant or Greco-Roman heritage. Neither Greece nor Rome had the kind of pluralistic democracy as that concept had been understood in the United States since Andrew Jackson, but the tribes, particularly the gynarchical tribal confederacies, did. It is true that the oligarchic form of government that colonial Americans established was originally based on Greco-Roman systems in a number of ways, such as its restriction of citizenship to propertied white males over twenty-one years of age, but it was never a form that Americans as a whole have been entirely comfortable with. Politics and government in the United States during the Federalist period also reflected the English common law system as it had evolved under patriarchal feudalism and monarchy - hence the United States' retention of slavery and restriction of citizenship to propertied white males."

"Settler colonialism is said to be a structure, not an historic event, whose endgame is always the elimination of the Natives in order to acquire their land, which it does in countless seen and unseen ways. These techniques are woven throughout the US's national discourse at all levels of society. Manifest Destiny—that is, the US's divinely sanctioned inevitability—is like a computer program always operating unnoticeably in the background. In this program, genocide and land dispossession are continually both justified and denied.

Like white fragility, settler fragility is the inability to talk about unearned privilege—in this case, the privilege of living on lands that were taken in the name of democracy through profound violence and injustice. Like white privilege, white supremacy is also at the root of settler fragility. The difference is that foreign invasion, dispossession of Indigenous lands, and genocide were based on (white) European religious and cultural supremacy as encoded in the doctrine of discovery, not racial supremacy. And, unlike for other people of color who have made significant legal gains in the US legal system ..." ~ Dina Gilio-Whitaker

Mormons are murderers:

"When the Mormons first reached Utah in 1847, there were an estimated 20,000 Native Americans within the territory. By 1900 the number had plummeted to 2,623. In other words, eighty-six percent of the Indians in Utah vanished in half a century."

Not your promised land. Not our job to protect weak white man fragility.
Let them go battle each other out in a zero-sum endgame. We don't and shouldn't care which side thinks its ahead.

Native peoples can rightly say that whites were the first illegal aliens.
We gave them over 500 years and they're still not getting it right. Enough.

Decolonize

America. It's the place European colonists came and stole land from the natives, claiming they just wanted a better life for their children. Ignorant, idiotic farmers killed the native buffalo -- which were far too big and powerful for the white man -- to let cattle ranchers terrorize and trample the land for "hamberders". Ignorant, idiotic colonists ripped up vibrant and precious ecosystems that were already abundant with food to build nasty hotels, HOAs, golf courses, strip malls and roads. Those Europeans grew fat and lazy while the working homeless people who served them piled up on the streets, unable to sleep peacefully. Still yet, the delusional landlords and PMCs keep demanding increasingly expensive leases and rents and fees and real estate commissions as if it were their "right".

(apparently the cat knows something about how forever damned they are for that.
anyway)

Colonists obviously didn't plan that far ahead. They never were good at predicting anything.

Because of course, those colonists forgot where they came from.
And they failed to learn the intricate details of history, their own history on a different continent ...
doomed to repeat mistakes of past.

Is modern-day America really stupid enough to recreate messes that were supposed to be cleaned up in the 70's?

No, your colonial ideas don't work here ... the evidence is indisputable.

"4. The physical and cultural genocide of American Indian tribes is and was mostly about patriarchal fear of gynocracy. DO NOT BASE ANYTHING ON A FAILED SYSTEM.

FAILED SYSTEMS INCLUDE MONARCHIES; EXCLUDE EUROPEAN MONARCHIES.
